DOCKET #70 STYLING CLARIFICATION

PATRICK K. MCDONNELL,

DROP MARKETS,

Defendants.

VIA ECF

Chief Magistrate Judge Roanne L. Mann
United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York
225 Cadman Plaza East
Brooklyn, New York 11201

Dear Judge Mann:

I am writing you concerning the filing of [Docket #70] on my behalf via ECF by Plaintiff David W. Oakland, May 07, 2018. Defendant has communicated numerous times via email in regards to the incorrect styling filed with the Court to Plaintiff many days prior to recent filings. In Plaintiff last communication with Defendant after stalls to resolve this issue, Plaintiff responded on May 16, 2018 via email; "In response to your questions about the style of the motion on ECF, it may be able to be manually changed depending on the nature of the change. You should contact the ECF clerk directly at 718-613-2610 if you wish." As mentioned in my filing today [Docket #76] filed on my behalf by Plaintiff David W. Oakland, "Defendant relies on Plaintiff to upload ECF filings on his behalf as a courtesy." and the identical situation occurred again today in regards to Plaintiff incorrect styling of a filing duly noted in [Docket #76] on behalf of Defendant. Defendant declares that said filing was not a MOTION TO DISMISS, but a NOTICE TO THE COURT to move to schedule a conference/hearing in regards to case dismissal/withdrawal and a request to 'cease' any further Plaintiff Discovery/Settlement actions as Plaintiff is not afforded jurisdiction over Defendant. A new U.S. Court ruling of 'specific' case law affecting Defendant defense and due process is now available for Court review which was Defendant sole purpose of notifying the Court on May 07, 2018. Defendant asks the Court forgive ignorance Defendant bears as this is all new to Defendant who is doing his best to Defend without proper legal representation while relentlessly seeking legal daily.

Id. "Please take notice that Defendant moves the Court to schedule a conference/hearing in regards to case dismissal/withdrawal. Defendant also respectfully moves the Court to immediately order Plaintiffs' 'cease' any further Discovery/Settlement actions as they are not afforded jurisdiction over Defendant under current law." [quoting Docket at #70 May 07, 2018]

[ATTACHED] Plaintiff NOTICE TO THE COURT incorrectly styled by Plaintiff on Defendant behalf.

Respectfully Submitted,

May 17, 2018

/s/ Patrick K. McDonnell
